

What to expect from your visit to:

DUBLIN ZOO

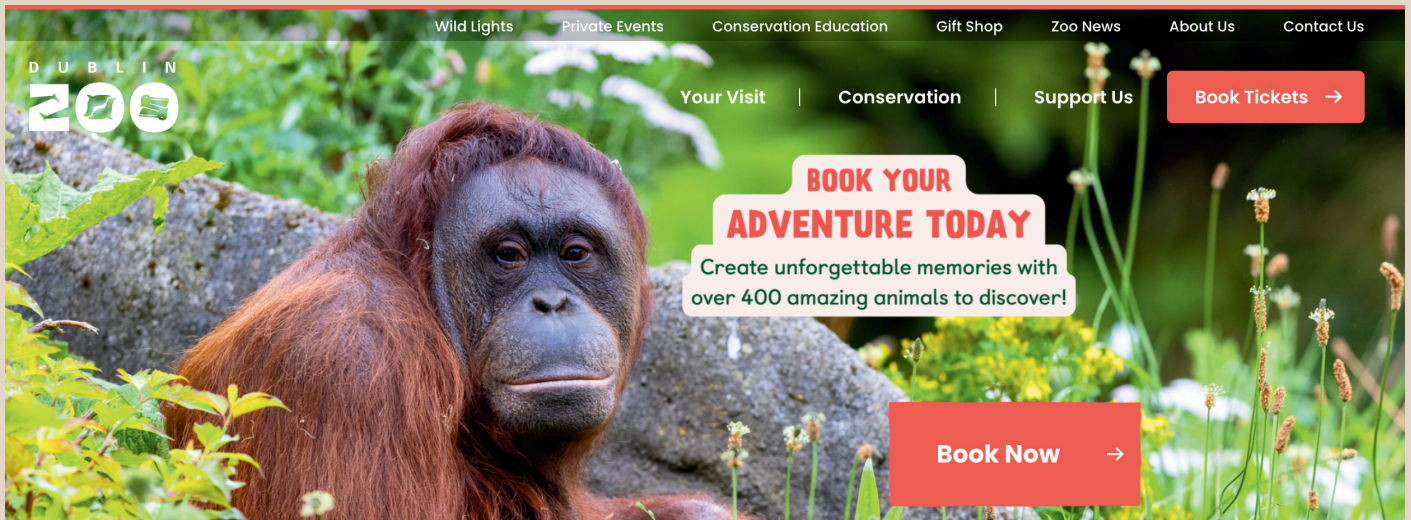

ABOUT DUBLIN ZOO

Dublin Zoo is a conservation organisation based in Dublin's Phoenix Park.

It is home to over 400 animals, from snow leopards to red pandas, Asian elephants to southern white rhinos.

BEFORE YOUR VISIT

Before your visit to the Zoo, we recommend that you visit our website where you can find out more about our animals, habitats, facilities and tickets.

dublinzoo.ie

GETTING TO THE ZOO

There are a number of ways you can get to Dublin Zoo.

If arriving by car, you will park in the Lord's Walk car park or another area of the Phoenix Park.

You will park here if arriving by coach or private bus hire.

ARRIVING AT THE ZOO

This is what the entrance to Dublin Zoo looks like.
You will enter into the Zoo here.

You can also purchase tickets to the Zoo here if you have not pre-booked online.

A member of staff will need to scan your tickets
in order for you to gain entry into the Zoo.

ARRIVING AT THE ZOO

If you are coming to the Zoo with a group or if you have an annual pass, you will enter at this entrance.

EXPLORING THE ZOO

When you enter Dublin Zoo, you will see a large 'Plan Your Day' sign, which features a map of the Zoo, Keeper Talk times and open restaurants and food outlets.

EXPLORING THE ZOO

Throughout the Zoo, will you see maps like this, which will help you plan your route around.

EXPLORING THE ZOO

You will see lots of different animals at Dublin Zoo.

EXPLORING THE ZOO

Interpretation at animal habitats will help you learn more about the different species.

EXPLORING THE ZOO

Dublin Zoo's Keeper Talks are available in Irish Sign Language (ISL). These talks are available for Asian lion, red panda, Humboldt penguin, California sea lion, Asian elephant and southern white rhino.

To access the talks, scan the QR code on signage at the different habitats.

EXPLORING THE ZOO

If you need help, look out for a member of Dublin Zoo's Volunteer team.

They wear red fleeces / jackets or white polo t-shirts.

EXPLORING THE ZOO

In the Zoo, there may be strong smells...

EXPLORING THE ZOO

...and some of the paths can be steep.

EXPLORING THE ZOO

The Meerkat Restaurant is our main food outlet and you can buy hot and cold meals and drinks, as well as snacks and ice creams here.

There are other outlets throughout the Zoo for snacks and you will be able to find these using the Zoo map.

ZOOVENIRS

The Zoo shop is stocked full of wonderful Zoovenirs – from plushes of your favourite animals to books and lots more.

It can be very busy and noisy in the Zoo shop.

LEAVING THE ZOO

When it's time to leave Dublin Zoo, you will exit Dublin Zoo through the Gift Shop and begin your journey home.

We hope you enjoyed your visit to:

DUBLIN ZOO

